The Prince of Wales School Association

Once upon a time in a school not so far away, children (and their very generous parents and carers) wanted to thank their teachers for an amazing year of inspired learning...

The school PTA had a novel idea that instead of guessing what the teachers would like as a gift... they would just ask them...

And so... an Amazon Wish List was born...

The wish list still gave everyone in the magical kingdom the freedom to choose what they wanted to do, but also meant more resources for ALL children in the very special school.

The list was available to view for the entire kingdom, including Grandmas and Grandads (who were also very generous) and was listed at...

The wish list was very popular and everyone lived...

HAPPILY EVER AFTER!

THE END - THANK YOU FOR YOUR SUPPORT
